

FYI: The DOE has prepared guidance on Supporting and Partnering with Families of Multilingual Learners, which includes a selection of school-facing and family-facing resources anchored in culturally responsive-sustaining (CRS) family engagement practices. Topics covered in this guidance include digital readiness and digital literacy, supporting immigrant communities, and English language learner (ELL) services during and beyond the school year. Review these resources and share them with families as you see fit.

Your DOE credentials may be required to access the link(s) above.