

Top Characteristics of an Ideal Board Chair

- 1. Meets with school leaders regularly (at least monthly)
- 2. Considers their chairmanship their #1 charitable/civic responsibility
- 3. Makes a personally significant gift and pushes other Trustees to do the same
- 4. Willing to have hard conversations with school leadership
- 5. Willing to have hard conversations with other Trustees about their under OR over-involvement in the school
- 6. Invests in the evaluation of the Board as whole and helps evaluate each board member, as well
- 7. Represents the school and the school's mission in public