

Charter Schools in Manhattan

2023
2024

There are 55 charter schools currently operating in Manhattan, serving more than 31,000 students—with 1 in 5 public school students in Manhattan attending a charter school. Manhattan charter schools serve more than twice the percentage of Black students than Manhattan district schools and nearly the same percentages of Hispanic students, English Language Learners, and students with IEPs.

91%
of charter school students in Manhattan are Black or Hispanic

Approximately 1 in 5
public school students in Manhattan attends a charter school

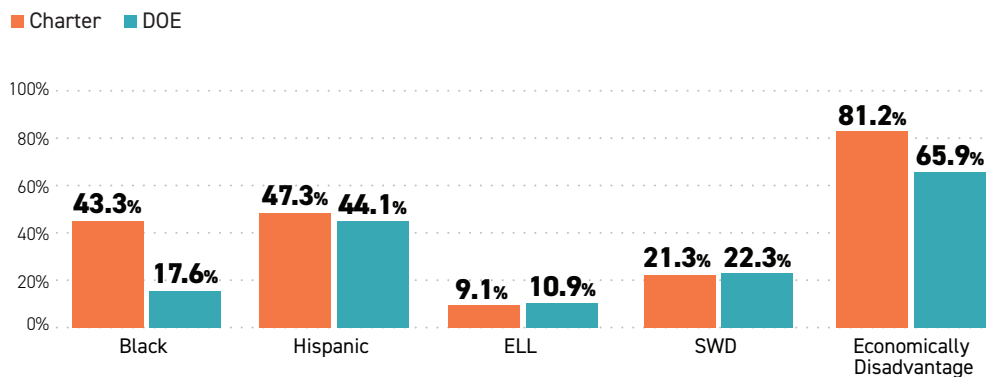

80%
of Manhattan charter schools have been serving their communities for more than 10 years

Black and Hispanic students at Manhattan charter schools achieve higher rates of proficiency by significant margins in both ELA and math.

Source: NYSED and NYC DOE Publicly Reported Assessment Data, 2022-23.

In Manhattan, charter schools serve more than twice the percentage of Black students than district schools and nearly the same percentages of Hispanic students, English Language Learners, and students with IEPs.

Source: NYSED and NYC DOE Enrollment/Demographics Data, 2022.23.